

Ronald Burns, D.O.

Ronald Burns, DO, graduated from the College of Osteopathic Medicine Ohio University in 1989. He completed his internship at Doctors Hospital of Stark County and his residency at Florida Hospital East Orlando. Dr. Burns is board certified in Family Practice and the National Association of Medical Examiners. He holds a license in both Florida and Ohio.

Dr. Burns was appointed by Governor Jeb Bush to the Governor's Health Information Infrastructure Advisory Board. Dr. Burns also served on the Florida Medicaid Formulary Study Panel and on many statewide committees including the Pharmaceutical & Therapeutics Committee.

American Osteopathic Association (AOA) President George Thomas, DO, appointed him to the American Osteopathic Information Association Technical Advisory Committee. He is Past President of the Florida Osteopathic Medical Association (FOMA), a Trustee for FOMA District Society 3, and serves as a Delegate to the AOA House of Delegates and holds a teaching appointment at Florida Hospital.

Dr. Burns has guest lectured for many prestigious, national organizations such as Harvard Medical School and is currently in private practice in Orlando, Florida. He currently serves as a member on the Osteopathic Medical Board, on the Council on Physician Assistants, and the Joint Committee on Anesthesiologist Assistants.

Dr. Burns said he was inspired to enter the health care profession because of his aspiration to provide safe and quality medical services to the community. He was inspired by his mentoring physicians to not only provide quality health care, but to also provide compassion to his patients.

Because of his passion and dedication to his profession, Dr. Burns became a member of the Board of Osteopathic Medicine to assist the legislature in assuring that all Florida citizens receive quality health care and to insure all licensees practice with skill and safety.

Dr. Burns sees that Florida is working to meet the challenges in providing quality health care that is cost effective for all of the citizens of Florida.
